Eight City Policemen Take DeKalb Fugitive

LATE NEWS

Legion Chooses Philly for Convention

INDIANAPOLIS—(INS)—Philadelphia has been chosen as the site for the thirty-third convention of the American Legion.

This will be the second time the Legion's National Committee, now meeting in Indianapolis, has chosen the City of Brotherly Love.

This year's convention was held at Miami, Fla. Both Miami and New York City had extended invitations to the 1949 convention, in addition to Philadelphia's bid.

'Citizen of the World' Makes Shortest UN Speech

PARIS—(UP)—Garry Davis, self-styled "citizen of the world" and son of a prominent American orchestra leader, got up to try to tell the United Nations diplomats how to make peace.

He delivered the shortest speech ever heard in the UN.

"I interrupt! I interrupt!" the red-haired wartime flier shouted from the balcony to the General Assembly 25 feet below.

"In the name of the people . . ."

That was as far as he got. Security police grabbed him, hustled him off to jail, held him for three and one-half hours and then released him. With a handshake, he stepped into the Paris night. Five of his friends, also arrested, were also released.

Tojo, 24 Other Japanese Appeal to MacArthur

TOKYO—(AP)—Hideki Tojo and 24 other Japanese leaders convicted of war crimes have appealed to Gen. MacArthur.

The deadline for filing appeals passed last night without an official count of petitions seeking to set aside the verdicts of the 11-nation tribunal. MacArthur's office reported today that all the defendants filed appeals.

Tojo, wartime Premier and War Minister, and six others were sentenced to hang; 16 were sentenced to life imprisonment and two to lesser prison terms. MacArthur is the reviewing authority.

LONDON—(UP)—Buckingham Palace has issued its final official bulletin on the condition of Princess Elizabeth and her newly born Prince.

"Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth and her son are maintaining steady and satisfactory progress," the announcement said "The daily bulletin will therefore be discontinued."

Canadian Planes Join Search for U. S. Bomber

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia—(UP)—Three Canadian planes joined the search for a United States B-25 Bomber which has been missing since Nov. 5 with six men aboard.

The plane disappeared while flying from Washington, D. C., to Argentia, Newfoundland.

Strong Man Recaptured After Escape

By KEELER McCARTNEY

Vowing he would not be taken alive, an escaped convict last night battled eight Atlanta policemen before he was finally taken into custody on Washington Street.

The prisoner, Roy Wilson, escaped from a DeKalb County prison guard last Saturday night. Guard T. L. Simon said Wilson complained of not feeling well and while en route to Stone Mountain for medical treatment, suddenly produced a knife and forced his way out of the car.

On a tip that Wilson had been seen on Crew Street, S. W., Sgt. L. T. Bullard and Dets. W. M. Holland and J. E. Helms last night began driving through the section when they recognized him walking along Washington Street near Rawson. Leaping from the car, Holland attempted to place Wilson under arrest.

"You'll never take me back down there alive," Wilson shouted on seeing the officers.

Hundreds of persons quickly gathered on the street to watch the grim struggle as patrol car after patrol car rushed to the scene. Traffic was blocked for several minutes while the struggle went on.

Eventually the three detectives aided by Patrolmen W. E. Peacock, H. J. Standridge, L. C. Pope, E. H. Jackson and J. B. Satterfield were able to strap Wilson's hands and legs. Three officers held him in the patrol wagon while en route to City Jail.

"He's the strongest man I've ever seen," Sgt. Bullard declared.

DeKalb Warden E. W. Wier said Wilson was addicted to chewing the paper wadding from benzadrine inhalers and after chewing the waddings was "just like a wild man."

"It's a terrible situation when a prisoner becomes crazed like that," Wier declared. "I'm sure that was what was wrong with him Saturday night. I wish someone would help us stop these inhalers from being smuggled to the prisoners."

Serving a 15-year sentence for burglary, Wilson was transferred to DeKalb County after killing another prisoner at Tattnall State Prison in Reidsville, J. B. Hatchett, of the State Board of Corrections, said. Hatchett said Wilson bludgeoned to death a trusty who had been serving as guard as the trusty slept.

EYE BIG GAME

Tech, Georgia To Polish Off Breathers

Georgia Tech and Georgia will go through the motions of playing a couple of football games today, but for the most part the coaches and players alike will be looking ahead to next week's big finale over in Athens Town when the two big SEC powerhouses get together for their annual party.

Today, however, the Jackets must polish off Quinn Decker's little band of gridiron warriors from The Citadel in a game starting at 2:30 out at Grant Field and Wally Butts' Conference - leading Bulldogs will be confronted with the apparent light assignment of turning back the downtrodden Purple Hurricane from Furman. This struggle is also billed to start at 2:30.

Neither Tech nor Georgia was expecting trouble from today's foes. In fact, the first-stringers of both Georgia and Tech will enjoy pretty much of a holiday after they get things rolling. The second, third and even fourth-stringers were looking forward to more than the usual action.

Heavy rains yesterday promised damp gridirons for both games, but the weatherman said that the forecast for this afternoon was clear and colder. Regardless of the footing, the Bulldogs and Jackets were expected to romp over today's "breathers."

Only two intra conference battles were on tap today. Alabama's Red Elephants, upsetters of Tech last Saturday, are slated against LSU's Bengals at Baton Rouge, while Kentucky and Tennessee were all set for their annual battle up at Knoxville.

Non-Conference games stacked up as follows: Vanderbilt vs. Maryland at Nashville; Florida vs. Miami at Gainesville and Tulane vs. Cincinnati at New Orleans. Of this trio only Vandy was expected to run into any real trouble. Getting ready for their traditional battle a week hence, Mississippi State and Ole Miss were enjoying open dates. Auburn's Tigers also took the day off to catch their breath before the big tussle with Clemson's undefeated Tigers next Saturday afternoon.

Top games in the nation were those involving Michigan and Ohio State at Columbus, Ohio, and the Fighting Illini of Illinois versus Northwestern's Wildcats at Evanston, Ill. Michigan's Wolverines, rolling along to another unbeaten season, were favorites by two to three touchdowns over the Buckeyes, but they could encounter trouble in this one. Northwest-

Mid-West Paralyzed By Storms

Atlanta's second cold wave of the Winter is expected to roll into the area tonight. The cold snap follows on the heels of a freak tornado which hit the Forest Park section of the city yesterday, bowling over one house and damaging several others.

The cold spell, the weatherman said, is a part of Winter's first storm now roaring out of the prairie country of the Middle West, where hundreds of communities lay paralyzed by ice and snowdrifts.

The mercury started falling here late yesterday, after an all-day rain. The change of temperature was accompanied by high winds which, in the Forest Park section of Clayton County, hit tornadic speed.

One mile southeast of Forest Park the wind whipped down and dealt a 70-mile-per-hour sock, lifting one home from its foundation and hurtling it 150 feet, levelling several barns, twisting and uprooting king-sized trees.

It was a lightning-like blow, pinpointing in an area of about 200 yards. The home it picked up was that of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Scroggins. Mrs. Scroggins and her five-year-old child were in it at the time, but were not hurt.

Still another sufferer from the blow was H. V. Shellnutt, a farmer, who estimated the wind damage to his barns and crops at $10,000.

No winds are expected to accompany today's cold spell.

The weatherman's forecast is fair and colder today and tonight; Sunday fair and a little warmer in the afternoon.

Today's highest temperature is expected to be 52; Sunday's 58.

The Middle Western section of the nation was gripped by one of the worst early-Winter blizzards in years and at least eight deaths have occurred. Trains and automobiles were stranded by snowdrifts, communication lines were down at many points, and at least 100 communities were out of contact with the rest of the U. S.

The Santa Fe's crack California Limited, a trans-continental train, was stalled for 17 hours in snowdrifts between Dodge City and Cimarron, Kans. Volunteers res-

Big Inch Pipeline Blast Injures 11 in Indiana

SEYMOUR, Ind.—(AP)—At least 11 men were injured last night when "Big Inch" natural gas pipeline exploded at a pumping station eight miles Northeast of here.

State Police said three men remained unaccounted for for more than two hours after the blast.

Flames shot high into the air and intense heat prevented rescuers and fire-fighting equipment from entering the pumping station enclosure.

Of the 11 injured, eight were treated and released at Schenck Memorial hospital here. None of the three who remained at the hospital was believed in serious condition.

The hospital said all the injured men suffered burns, mostly on the face and arms, and that the three hospitalized men might have inhaled smoke or burning gas.

All available ambulances went out from Seymour, and fire-fighting equipment was sent to the scene, which is midway between Indianapolis and Louisville, Ky.

Detective Don Wynn of the Seymour State Police Post said the "Big Inch" line blew up a few minutes before 6 p. m. CST. He said flames shot to a height of about 300 feet and burned fiercely, visible for miles.

A second blast occurred about one and one-half hours later in the pumping enclosure, and police believed it came from the "little Inch" pipeline, which parallels the "Big Inch" at the scene.

Both pipelines are operated by the Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, which has headquarters at Shreveport, La. Pumping station buildings for both lines are located inside the enclosure near the village of Reddington on U. S. 31.

Detective Winn said gas pressure was shut off after the explosion at stations in Medora and Batesville, Ind., and Somerset, Ohio. He said the flames appeared to be slackening about two hours after the first blast and apparently would soon be under control.

Stores' Stocks Hit Christmas Record

The largest supply of Christmas merchandise in the city's history has been stocked by Atlanta stores in anticipation of the greatest buying season in history, a survey of stores indicated yesterday.

The Christmas atmosphere is in evidence in gaily decorated stores and most all Yule season decorations are expected to be up within the next few days.

The extreme warm weather of this Fall has caused the Christmas season to slip up on most people "suddenly," one department store official pointed out.

Big Money Has Nothing To Fear, Says Rayburn

KEY WEST, Fla.—(AP)—Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn said yesterday this country's financial interests have "nothing to be scared of" in the election of President Truman.

Emerging from a vacation meeting with the Chief Executive, the veteran Texas Congressman told a news conference any possible depression would be "man-made" and not "justified by our economic situation."

He scoffed at the possibility of an effective Southern Democratic-Republican coalition in Congress and predicted "effective co-operation" between the White House and Congressional leadership in the Congress opening in January.

Before Rayburn talked with newsmen, an authoritative but unquotable White House source reported President Truman was shaping up legislation to restore the Labor Department to major cabinet status and give Secretary Maurice Tobin top authority in labor-management relations.

Rayburn sounded the reassuring note on the nation's economy when a reporter asserted:

"A lot of people, including some of those in Wall Street, seem to be afraid of where President Truman and Vice President-Elect Barkley are going to take us."

Rayburn, winding up his visit with Mr. Truman, pondered awhile, and replied:

"There are some people in the United States who seem to enjoy being scared.

"With the buying power of this country at its height, and people able to buy everything manufactured or grown at a reasonable profit to manufacturers and growers, I don't see anything anybody's got to be scared about.

"Nobody can say the country is not in a prosperous and healthy condition.

"If a major recession or depression should come—which I do not expect—it will not be justified by our economic situation, but be man-made."

Rayburn talked with newsmen preparatory to leaving by plane at 11 o'clock last night for Dallas, Texas, where he will speak at a party victory dinner tonight.

He was asked about the prospects of preventing a "reactionary coalition" of some Southern Democrats and some Republicans from defeating the expanded "New

Talmadge Wielding Ax On Compensation Board

By M. L. ST. JOHN

A move to shake up the Workmen's Compensation Board in the 1949 Legislature is under way today as persons hired during the administration of Acting Gov. Thompson resign.

The economy ax of Gov. Talmadge is hitting this politically turbulent Board now, and patronage may hit it in January with a move to replace two Board members.

Former Rep. Emmett O. Dobbs, of Gwinnett County, is resigning, effective Dec. 1, as Deputy Director of the Workmen's Compensation Board. Ed Dykes, of Atlanta, recently resigned as Deputy Director. They will be replaced by one Deputy Director. Some of the stenographers also are being eliminated.

Pat McCutcheon, former Clerk of the House of Representatives, is quitting Dec. 1 as Secretary-Treasurer of the Board. He will be replaced by R. D. Carr, of Canon, son-in-law of Rep. John Wood.

The term of Harry Monroe, of Atlanta, as a Board member expires in January. The term of Pat Riordan, of Atlanta, and the term of Arlie Tucker, of Nashville, expire May 1, 1949.

There is talk that the Legislature will be asked to abolish the present Board and reconstitute it—possibly as a five-member Board—with Talmadge appointees. Tucker would be retained.

There was talk that Mrs. Gertrude Harris, well-known Atlanta lawyer, might be named to the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, but Talmadge told newsmen yesterday he was not ready to announce his decision on this Board. Mrs. Rebecca Rainey, of Dawson, also is mentioned for one of the two posts. Eugene Wilburn, of Oglethorpe, is expected to be one of the appointees.

Meanwhile, in another department, Maj. George Wilson began rehiring 28 State Troopers fired by Thompson early in 1947. Wilson said 11 vacancies exist in the Patrol, and that he will discharge a few "undesirables" to make room for the remaining former Troopers who want their jobs back.

Capt. W. C. Dominy, recently appointed director of the uniformed division of the Department of Public Safety, will continue in this post, Wilson said. Paul Smith, whom Talmadge named as Patrol head in 1947, has been re-employed as lieutenant in charge of the Madison district headquarters.

Wilson said he would ask the 1949 Legislature to enact a merit and retirement system for the State Patrol.

Talmadge appointed Herbert B. Hayes, of Atlanta, former State President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, as one of the two consumer members on the Milk Control Board.

New Device Will Detect Hotel Fires

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A new device called an "electronic fire detector"—described by the manufacturer as designed "to prevent such tragedies as the LaSalle Hotel fire in Chicago and the Winecoff Hotel disaster in Atlanta"—was demonstrated here yesterday.

Intended for use in hotels, apartment houses, plants, office buildings and other structures, the instrument consists of a central control board linked by electrical circuits to special thermostats.

These heat-sensitive thermostats can be placed in various rooms of a building, the manufacturers said, and each "will signal overheating within an area of 625 square feet."

Queens of Egypt, Iran, Without Sons, Divorced

CAIRO—(AP)—The reigning Queens of Egypt and Iran who bore no sons to inherit the thrones have been divorced by their royal husbands.

The Royal Palace said yesterday King Farouk, Egypt's 28-year-old monarch, signed the decree two days ago which divorced him from Farida, the beautiful Queen who bore him three daughters.

Simultaneously it was announced that King Farouk's sister, Princess Fawzia, one of the world's most beautiful women, has been divorced by the Shah of Iran. They have a daughter.

Under the laws of both countries only a male heir can ascend to the throne.

Observers generally agree that the suddenly announced dissolutions were due to personal, not international, reasons.

The communiques issued in both countries emphasized that Princess Fawzia's divorce "cannot by any means affect the existing friendly relations between Egypt and Iran."

Farouk was married in January, 1938, before he became King. His then 17-year-old bride, Safi Naz Zulfikar, is the granddaughter of Mohammed Pasha Said, former prime minister of Egypt. Farouk gave her the name of Farida, meaning "peerless," because all members of his family use names beginning with "F."

The communique announcing the divorce said:

"God's will ordered that the sacred relation between the noble couple be broken. This will directed the hearts of King Farouk and Queen Farida to a desire for divorce while both felt regret.

"In fulfillment of this desire, King Farouk signed the divorce on Nov. 17, 1948.

"The royal cabinet while making this announcement pray to God to prepare for King Farouk what will make the country happy."

An official announcement in Tehran said the Persian climate endangered the health of Empress Fawzia, bride of Shah Reza Pahlevi, of Iran, and that thus it was agreed the Egyptian King's sister be divorced. She returned to Egypt two and a half years ago, leaving her daughter, Chahinaz, in Tehran.

Divorce is an easier matter in Egypt and Iran than in Western countries but not nearly as common. Moslem husbands can divorce their wives for practically any reason. There are no specified grounds. A male can obtain a separation merely for the asking. Under Moslem laws which prevail in both Persia and Egypt divorce is considered a private matter. Only the individuals and Moslem priests are directly concerned but the governments require that marriages and divorces be recorded.

Normally there is a formal prenuptial marriage contract. When divorce is contemplated a priest is consulted and if reconciliation cannot be arranged a settlement is reached and the end of the marriage is formally recorded.

Under the law polygamy is still permitted but it is not largely practiced in either country, officials say.

LOVE BUG BITES BACHELOR, 89

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — It took a long time, but the love bug finally caught Jesse Ray Davison, Minneapolis.

Davison, a bachelor of 89 years' standing, eloped with Mrs. Della Farrell, a 79-year-old widow, to Winnipeg, Canada. Winnipeg authorities waived the regulations requiring blood tests and the couple was married.

They were back home today.

"Our relatives don't know about the wedding yet," the new Mrs. Davison said, "but we're certain they'll approve.

County Okays Right-of-Way

Final approval of the right-of-way for the West Connector to link the West By-Pass of the Lochner traffic plan with the North-South Expressway was given yesterday by the Fulton County Commission and engineers will now complete their surveys.

The connector, about 3,500 feet long, will leave the North-South Expressway at about Alexander Place and join the West By-Pass at about Simpson St. Cost of the project has not been determined. It will be paid for out of bond funds.

The Commission also took steps to clear up Bagley Park, a Buckhead Negro section, by instructing the County Manager to find $50,000 to acquire 16 more houses and lots before the end of the year. It voted to sell the old Second Ponce de Leon Church property on West Pace's Ferry Rd. for $25,000 and use that amount for development of Bagley Park into a recreational area.

Commissioner Jim Aldredge praised Chairman R. L. Doyal for his continuous efforts to develop the area and deplored criticism directed at the Chairman by a Buckhead newspaper.

AIRPORT SEEKERS TO GET CITY AID

A move by Jaycees of Atlanta to have the City mark principal roads leading to the Municipal Airport has been given the approval of Mayor Hartsfield and work is expected to begin immediately on this project.

The Mayor ordered the signs placed along the roads near Hapeville after he had conferred with members of the Jaycee Aviation Committee, which is headed by Chairman Bill Thomas.

NEW DEAL FOR DOGS—The Fulton County dog pound is clean and well-kept, but is entirely too small, according to Commissioner Jim Aldredge, who asked the County Commission yesterday to instruct County Manager A. E. Fuller and Health Commissioner R. W. McGee to find larger quarters for the dogs. "It's not right to keep 50 or 60 dogs in one pen," he said. The motion passed unanimously. The Commission also voted to finish paving Princeton, Redwine and McDonald Streets leading to the College Park Negro school, with College Park furnishing the asphalt.

HOLIDAYS — The Commission also voted to close the Courthouse on Thanksgiving Day and to give County employees their pay before Christmas.

GRANDPA WEBB — Sol. Gen. Paul Webb is now a grandfather. A granddaughter, Carol Lynn, was born Tuesday at St. Joseph's to Mr. and Mrs. Butler Webb. Mrs. Webb was formerly Miss Ruth Louise Groves.

BAD CHECKS — Judge Ralph Pharr yesterday meted out a three-year sentence to Mrs. Nell Raymond, East Point woman convicted early in the week on 10 counts of fictitious checks. Mrs. Raymond allegedly collected about $170 on the checks.

UN Defeats Red Call For Big 5 Arms Cuts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The United Nations Assembly defeated decisively last night Russia's demands for a one-third cut within a year in the armed strength of the five great powers and for a ban on the atomic bomb.

Instead the Assembly approved a Western plan for the UN Conventional Arms Commission to keep on working. The Commission will study next year how to organize an international organ for the gathering of armament information from UN members.

The Russian proposal was defeated, 39 to 6, after John Foster Dulles, of the United States, described it as "almost irresponsible" and a "cruel deception." He said the Soviet resolution was more dramatic than the Western proposal "but it achieves drama at the expense of oversimplifying the problem."

Again Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky charged the U. S. and Britain are carrying on a "mad armaments race" against Russia.

The Acting Palestine Mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, said he felt Israel has shown willingness in principle to abide by his order for a withdrawal from the Negev Desert of Southern Palestine.

Israel indicated she intended to keep her settlement garrisons and mobile forces in the Negev which already were there before Oct. 14, when Jewish troops launched the offensive that captured most of the area from the Egyptians.

Haifa dispatches said Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, Chief of the Truce Staff, already was putting into effect plans for supervising the setting up of provisional demarkation lines in the Negev.

Belgium's Socialist-Catholic cabinet fell following the resignation of Justice Minister Paul Struye. He was criticized in Parliament on his policy of clemency toward former pro-German collaborators.

Fifteen German war criminals were hanged in Landsberg prison in Munich. The executions brought to 73 the number hanged for the wartime killing of concentration camp inmates and captured American soldiers.

Premier Henri Queuille told the lower house of the French Parliament in effect it could choose between his government and the Communists in a confidence vote scheduled for next Tuesday.

LIQUOR CACHE — Stopping a car they believed to contain illicit liquor on Younge Street near Chamberlain, Patrolmen P. T. Giles and C. Chafin searched the machine thoroughly and found nothing. Then they noticed the driver's unusually large chest. A search of his person revealed two gallons of liquor hidden under his coat. Listed as Booker T. Sanford, 44, Negro, of 523 Highland Ave., N. E., he was booked for transporting illegal liquor. The car was impounded.

ROBBED - SLUGGED — Clyde Hooper, 50, of 620 Boulevard, S. E., last night was treated at Grady Hospital after he was allegedly slugged, stabbed and robbed of $30 on Courtland Street near Decatur Street. Hooper, an employee of the Security Warehouse at 113 Courtland St., S. E., had started home to get an overcoat, Det. George Christian said. As he left the warehouse someone slugged him in the mouth, stabbed him in the stomach and took his wallet. So sudden was the attack in a dark section, Hooper was unable to tell whether his assailant was white or Negro.

CHEAP CIGARETTES—Bargain prices on cigarettes landed two Negro boys in the Juvenile Detention Home as police studied four burglaries Thursday night in which cigarettes constituted a major portion of the loot. The two—one nine years of age and the other 12—were taken into custody by Patrolmen T. R. Reid and R. L. Gunter on Capitol Avenue. Patrolmen said the youths were offering popular brand cigarettes for sale at two for 25 cents. Stores reporting the loss of cigarettes overnight included a drive-in at 2349 Glenwood Ave., S. E.; the Mitchell Grocery at 372 Martin St., S. E.; the Whitehouse Grill at 834 Bankhead Ave., N. W.; the Scarbrough Grocery at 1033 Boulevard, N. E.

LOTTERY RAID — Closing swiftly on an apartment at 568 English Ave., N. W., detectives last night arrested seven Negroes and seized a quantity of lottery paraphernalia. Dets. R. A. Boone and B. G. Holland said the seven were busily adding up 11 lottery receipt ribbons and checking bundles of tickets when they entered. The seven arrested last night were listed as Rufus Jenkins, 42, of 964 Herndon St., N. W.; Waddell Brown, 20, of 138 Haynes St., N. W.; Sam Bryant, 24, of 442 Vine St., N. W.; Sam Dixon, 19, of 548 Strong St., N. W.; Arthur Harshaw, 34, of 436 Vine St.; William Dixon, 22, 548 Strong and Mildred Wilkerson, 24, of 568 English Ave.

Tax Amendment Would Pass--Solon

Sen.-Elect Knox Gholston, former member of the State Highway Commission, declared yesterday he had no doubt but that Georgians would approve a constitutional amendment to dedicate highway user tax revenues to highway purposes tomorrow, if they were given a chance to vote on it.

He pointed out that the people of Massachusetts, by a vote of five to one, recently made their State the twenty-first to adopt such an amendment.

Berlin Area Fog Checks 'Lift'--Fliers Unworried

BERLIN—(AP)—The American-British airlift was sharply curtailed yesterday by fog and mist in the Berlin area, but resumed last night.

Tempelhof and Gatow airfields virtually shut down at noon. The new Tegel strip was closed all day.

The weather focused attention again on the question of whether the shuttle to Soviet-blockaded Berlin is in danger of collapsing during the Winter months.

Such fears found no echo in Weisbaden, U. S. Air Force headquarters. Lt. Gen. John Cannon, Commander of the U. S. Air Force in Europe, said in an interview there Wednesday:

"There is absolutely no doubt in my mind about our ability to supply Berlin in the Winter, or indefinitely, or forever and a day.

"We have the lift very well organized. It is very efficient and improving. Nothing, of course, is perfect. There will be certain periods when we can't go in. But the resulting shortages will be made good during favorable weather."

Asked about a report that the United States is seriously short of cargo planes, Cannon said: "We have enough aircraft to handle the lift, either here or on the way." He added that there is no critical shortage of parts.

The General observed that any question of Air Force appropriations to keep the shuttle running is a matter for Congress to decide. Up to now, however, there has been no shortage of funds.

Other American officers in Wiesbaden pointed out that in appraising the Winter hazard it must be remembered that Berlin has built stockpiles of food and fuel. These are sufficient to last six weeks even if not one plane reached the city during that period.

Weather records show that November is the worst flying month in Germany. But during the first two weeks of this month American and British planes carried an average of more than 3,000 tons of food and fuel a day to Berlin. On no day did fog completely halt operations for a 24-hour period.

A New President for Duke

An Emory graduate and adopted Georgian, Dr. A. Hollis Edens, has been named President of Duke University, succeeding Dr. Robert L. Flowers, who has been elevated to the position of Chancellor.

Dr. Edens, until the first of this year Vice Chancellor of the University System of Georgia, is a native Tennessean who has spent much of his career in this State. Beginning his career as a teacher in Clay County, he has served as Director of Emory Junior College at Valdosta, Dean of Emory's School of Business Administration, Dean of Administration for Emory and, finally, Vice Chancellor of the University System of Georgia, a post he relinquished in February to become Associate Director of the General Education Board.

Duke is one of the great universities of the South. But it may count itself fortunate that it has been able to attract to its presidency so capable an educational leader as Hollis Edens.

A Blueprint for Defense

The first step in setting up a national civil defense program, to be used in case the nation is attacked, has been taken. It is in the form of a 300-page detailed plan laid down by the National Military Establishment and released by Sec. Forrestal, calling for mobilization of the civilian populace to minimize alarm, panic, destruction and death in event of war.

Even the most optimistic among us dare not hope there will be any appreciable warning or time for preparation should we be attacked. And the destruction at Pearl Harbor, where about 3,000 were killed, would be mild in comparison. Assuming that our foe would use the atomic bomb, the report warns that 100,000 casualties would result from each bomb dropped. Of these, 20,000 would be killed instantly and 20,000 more would die within a week.

Unless a well-disciplined organization were ready to take over, such destruction would totally demoralize all civilian effort and chaos would result. Citing the great losses in enemy cities attacked during the last war, the report asserted that death tolls might have been lower if adequate civil defense had been operative. And England, it noted, "might have gone down to defeat had she not prepared and trained her people in advance so that they knew what to do and how to do it when enemy planes and buzz-bombs came over."

Civil defense, as envisioned by the report, calls for organization from the national level on down to the village level.

As horrible as are the prospects of another war, it is far better that we be prepared to deal effectively with the death, destruction and disorder it would bring rather than wait in smug inertia until it is too late.

College Enrollments Continue Upward

Despite a decline in the number of veterans, American college enrollment has set a new peak for the third successive year. The Federal Office of Education reports that 2,408,307 students are enrolled in the 1,800 American colleges and universities.

This is almost 1,000,000 more than went to college in the highest pre-war year and means that the facilities of our higher educational institutions will continue to be taxed for some time to come.

Veteran enrollment this year dropped to 1,021,041 from a high in 1947 of 1,122,738. Education spokesmen interpret this as meaning the influx of veterans under the GI bill has passed the peak. They also see hopeful signs that veteran graduates soon will replenish the failing supply of college instructors as well as doctors.

Prospects for more elementary and secondary school teachers, however, are slim. First-time enrollments reported by teachers' colleges decreased 7.3 percent while those in universities and professional schools dropped only three percent.

Tribute to the veteran students was paid by Dr. John Dale Russell, head of the Education Office's Division of Higher Education, who declared "veterans have set a terrific educational pace . . . They probably are doing the best work on the average that any college group has done."

Barkley May Be Most Powerful V. P.

(From the Louisville Courier-Journal.)

WASHINGTON—What Harry S. Truman and Alben W. Barkley have said to each other on the sunny beach at Key West may well mean close to 100 percent success for the President's legislative program at the forthcoming session of Congress. For if Truman is, as he appears to be, in a mood to rely heavily upon the expert guidance of his Vice President-Elect, it is possible he will get from House and Senate co-operation such as has not been seen since the first 100 days of Franklin D. Roosevelt's first term.

Even if relations between the White House and the Hill fail to reach that high mark, there is every indication that they will be vastly improved over those which obtained during the last two sessions. In fact, any change would be an improvement, because during both the Democratic-controlled Seventy-Ninth Congress and the Republican-dominated Eightieth Congress, liaison between President Truman and his party leaders in House and Senate was practically nonexistent.

It may be taken for granted that Truman has determined not to fritter away the heavy New Deal support which his victory swept into the House and Senate. Instead, he will tend to husband and nurture this liberal congressional strength, the biggest since 1938, so that not only will he lose none of the New Dealers, but will add to them middle-road Democrats and liberal Republicans.

That is where Alben Barkley can display his unusual skill. Despite all the recent talk about putting more administrative duties upon the Vice President, it is likely that the Kentuckian will devote most of his energies to developing smooth relations between the White House and the two chambers.

The path between the President and the Congress is, of course, a two-way street. If the former Senator from Missouri has forgotten that fact, there can be little doubt that Barkley has reminded him of it.

The President's attitude since the election victory indicates that he is prepared to go all the way in relying upon Barkley's estimate of the best strategy to employ. Truman's action in summoning Barkley from Paducah to share in the triumphal procession in Washington a few days after the election, and his action in having Barkley join him at Key West, must have been more than a generous desire to have the Kentuckian share the limelight.

Fortunately for both men, in working out legislative procedures, there is no difference in principle to stand between them. They see almost exactly alike on the liberal program both presented during the recent campaign. Their only difference lies in how and when to seek to achieve the objectives both desire.

For example, Barkley was a supporter of the civil rights proposal which Truman sent to Congress last February, thus creating the party split which caused such loud howls against his nomination and which led the Dixiecrats off in support of J. Strom Thurmond.

Barkley long has been for the antipoll-tax bill, antilynching legislation and the creation of a Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Barkley would not be likely to favor the one-shot procedure. He would incline to the view that it would be better first to shove through the antipoll-tax bill, with the aid of a cloture rule to break a Senate filibuster, then take up antilynching and FEPC in turn. Actually, it shouldn't be too hard to get approval for an antipoll-tax bill if the Senate leadership and the White House put full pressure behind it.

Despite all the furor and filibusters it has created, the poll-tax repealer is more a symbol than it is a controversy consisting of real meat and bones.

But it is a banner around which both sides have rallied. Negroes and Northern liberals have supported the poll-tax ban with emotional fervor. They would regard enactment of such a bill as the first step toward forcing the South to give the franchise to the Negro. The Southerners are equally emotional on the subject. They concede the poll-tax requirement should be done away with. Many Southern Senators even say they wish the States themselves would abolish the requirement. But, in their defense of white supremacy in their region, they hoist the flag of States' rights, and filibuster just as hard against the poll-tax measure as they do against FEPC.

There have been rumors that the Southerners are willing to make a deal. They are reported ready to swallow the antipoll-tax bill if they can get assurances they won't be hit also with FEPC and an antilynching bill. However attractive such a deal might be to Barkley and Truman in their desire to get other social welfare measures approved, it is not an arrangement which would suit the Negro organizations. Nor would such Northern liberals as Sen.-Elect Hubert Humphrey, of Minnesota, and Sen.-Elect Paul Douglas, of Illinois be likely to go along with it.

The vice presidential role which is shaping up for Barkley would seem to mean that his elevation to the presiding officer's chair, far from taking him away from the party leadership which he has held in the Senate for 11 years, is going to make him a super-majority leader.

For the first time since 1937, when Barkley took over the leadership, he will be able to exercise it free of the many obstacles he previously encountered. During the three years that Truman has been in the White House Barkley's was the worst of all jobs. Whether the Democrats were in control of the Senate or in the minority, the White House practically ignored him. Recommendations, veto messages and legislative proposals went to Congress from the White House before Barkley even knew they were being considered. Not only did the White House fail to consult him, it even failed to notify him of what was coming.

Things weren't quite that bad for Barkley while Franklin Roosevelt was in the White House. He nearly always knew what was coming and usually he had an opportunity to express his views on proposals, even if his views were overruled and he was asked to follow a course he considered likely to lead to defeat.

But now, if things work out the way they seem to be, Barkley will be almost a one-man legislature. It ought to be pleasant work for a man who has spent some 35 years in Congress. Certainly his role will make him the most influential Vice President this country has had, and will carry with it far more prestige than a Vice President could acquire by taking over administrative chores handed him by the President.

The Effective Bag of Asafetida

I remember on my grandmother's farm the journey to the post office, 10 miles away, was an event of daily importance.

One day it brought something which an uncle of mine, troubled with rheumatism, had ordered after reading an ad in a farm weekly. The ad, according to the discussion which my young mind retained, promised to cure and forever banish rheumatism. The cure was to be obtained by buying specially prepared insoles, one of copper and one of zinc. The ad declared that the currents in all bodies would thus be grounded and rheumatism cured. This was about the time electricity was being talked a great deal and small towns were putting up a dim bulb to burn at the main crossroads corners.

Cures All sorts of dramatic possibilities were being discussed. Electric currents were discussed as cures for cancer and other ills. The gullible were fooled by ads which the Federal Government later had to rule out with legislation. Most any man over 40 today recalls the ads of patent medicine firms of the old days and by quack doctors and hospitals. The labels on bottles of medicine often promised positive cures of tuberculosis, cancer and other consuming ills.

Science My uncle, who suffered from what I now know to have been arthritis, which is a form of rheumatism, was willing to try anything. Science was just then becoming "news" and so he bought copper and zinc plates.

I recall that other farm people in our community, who also suffered from rheumatism, saw my uncle's "cure" and produced their own, using tin and copper sheeting.

There was, of course, no cure. In fact, the carrying of a buckeye could produce more testimonials of rheumatism cures than the copper and zinc inner soles.

Witches We are not very far from jungle fetishes and witch-doctoring. I wore, as a child, a bag of asafetida about my neck to prevent colds. That was in East Tennessee. I have learned since that it was a custom in Georgia. Indeed, a charming lady, lately President of the Junior League, told me that in her childhood in a rural Georgia town the town doctor recommended it. I recall that on warm Spring days the class rooms used to be heavy with the aroma of asafetida bags fighting against germs. I am inclined to believe it had some merit largely because on self-respecting germ would stay around asafetida.

Arthritis There is now in progress a drive by the recently organized Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation to raise $2,000,000 for scientific research. Its President, Dr. W. Paul Holbrook, of Tucson, a leading arthritis specialist, says:

"We come to you without a cure. Indeed, we say we do not know the cause of the disease (rheumatism) nor do we have a single specific cure. All attempts to study the causes and cures have failed thus far because the attack was not provided with enough money, research people and a unified effort. The solution to the problem will come from a massed, organized, intelligent basic attack on the disease.

"That is what we propose doing.

"Interested readers can send their contributions to Arthritis, Box 1200, GPO, N. Y. 1, N. Y."

The irony of the situation is that today sufferers from rheumatism spend many millions each year on quack doctors and cures. There is a case now on trial in which operators of a machine producing currents gypped thousands out of large sums of money by promising cures. My uncle wasn't so dumb, after all.

Quacks Also on record are quacks with various "radioactive" machines; applications and "electronic" massages which will "cure" arthritis. All testify to the suffering and intense desire of some 7,500,000 Americans, all arthritic victims, for a cure.

Rheumatism—including arthritis, rheumatic heart disease, muscular rheumatism, and so on—leads the nation as the most damaging, chronic disease, crippling and killing 10 times as many persons as tuberculosis.

That we should spend millions on quacks and fail to raise $2,000,000 for research would be the greatest irony of all.

JOSEPH AND STEWART ALSOP

A New Military Alliance

WASHINGTON—Something of great importance is about to take place. Despite previous denials, negotiations between Under-Secretary of State Robert Lovett and the European Ambassadors on a North Atlantic pact are to be resumed almost immediately.

These negotiations are virtually certain to lead to an event of the first magnitude—a treaty which will be in effect a military alliance between the United States, Canada and a number of European countries. Although the whole matter has heretofore been wrapped in considerable mystery, it is thus worth examining just where the negotiations now stand, and what they are all about.

The immediate task of Lovett and the representatives of Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg is simply to write the treaty. It should be ready some time in January, and will then be submitted for approval to the President, the Congress and the Canadian and European governments.

Provisions There will no doubt be disagreements on wording, but agreement on the broad outlines of the treaty has already in fact been reached. It will be modeled on the existing Rio pact. The heart of it will be that each member nation is committed to go to war against an aggressor if another member nation is attacked. To this basic commitment provisions for pooling of resources and mutual consultation will be added. And there will be two small loopholes.

One loophole, necessitated by the American constitutional system, will provide that the commitment is limited by the constitutional processes of the governments concerned. The other loophole will reserve to each government the right to determine for itself whether or not aggression has taken place.

All this is pretty well agreed. Yet a number of vital issues remain to be settled. The first of these is simply the question: Who is to be invited to join the pact? There are now seven prospective members. But there are six other nations to which invitations may be extended.

These are Norway, Denmark, Eire, Portugal, Iceland and, last but not least, Italy. There is little doubt that Italy and Portugal would quickly accept an invitation to join. Eire and Iceland are more doubtful. Norway and Denmark hope to avoid any break with their neighbor, Sweden, which is at the moment dead set against coming in. They are now trying to make some special regional arrangement with Sweden, but under any circumstances it is now probable that Norway and Denmark will accept if they are asked to subscribe to the pact.

Fear But are these six countries to be asked to join? The French are more than doubtful, especially as regards Italy. They point to their own prewar experience as a tragic object lesson in the danger of making commitments which cannot be fulfilled. More practically, they fear that as a consequence of bringing in other countries, American aid in rearming Europe will be spread too thin, and the French share will thus be inadequate.

The American policy makers, on the other hand, are more and more convinced that Italy and the rest must be invited to join. They agree that under the peace treaty, any revision of which could be vetoed by the Soviets, Italy will remain a military liability. But the political effects of excluding Italy might be disastrous; to the Italians, and indeed to the Kremlin, it might seem an open declaration that Italy was to be thrown to the wolves. As for Norway, Denmark, Eire, Iceland and Portugal, a glance at the map is sufficient to suggest the strategic meaning of these countries.

Aid The French have other worries. Before signing the pact they would certainly like a commitment from this country on the specific amount of aid to be extended toward the rearmament of France. And they would also certainly welcome assurances that in the event of war the United States would base its strategy on holding Western Europe, rather than Spain or some other outpost.

No flat commitments on either point can be, or will be, made. Yet the American makers of policy are unanimously persuaded that the rearmament of Western Europe and the North Atlantic pact are inseparable, and the policy of arming Western Europe obviously implies the intention of holding Western Europe in case of war.

Thus French doubts on this score will no doubt be stilled. The strong probability is, moreover, that the pact will be extended despite French hesitations, if only because both Britain and the United States, the two most powerful signatories, favor its extension. Therefore the consequences of the talks which are to start again in a few days may well be the organization of the whole great border area of the North Atlantic, excepting only Spain, into a vast defensive alliance, supported and underwritten by the might of a rearming United States. This will be a direct consequence of Soviet policy since the war, and it might lead the rulers in the Kremlin to wonder whether, after all, the game they have been playing is really worth the candle.

Truman Stranger Than Fiction?

It is now revealed that the Library of Congress has the nation's largest collection of comic books.

So that's where our lawmakers get the ideas for their speeches.

Come to think of it, Congress could do worse than be influenced by the comic strip tendency to more action and less words.

And certainly it wouldn't hurt Rep. J. Parnell Thomas, for instance, to investigate a few of the detective books stressing the apparently un-American concept that crime indeed does not pay.

Of course, President Truman is an old friend of the comic strips. In fact, report has it that it was from Little Orphan Annie that he got his contempt for handicaps and odds.

Incidentally, I don't see why the Democratic National Committee doesn't continue and syndicate that comic strip depicting the life of Harry Truman it used during the campaign. Maybe it's because people won't go for anything too improbable and, compared to Truman, Superman's a piker.

Clean Out 'Canker'

Editor Constitution: Daily I look forward to reading your paper, which is a leader of intelligent progressive Southern journalism. But more often than not when I receive it an ugly trickle of dirty gray smoke curls upward from under the wrapping. This increases in a nauseating crescendo as the paper is opened, and the sickly odor of decay and putrefaction seeps forth. This is no physical decay of animal matter which overcomes me. It is far sadder and more loathsome, a decay of the spirit. A morbid malevolence, a bilious bigotry, a horrid hatred pollutes these pages. In short, Westbrook Pegler's column.

One hesitates to write about him, for frequently degenerates of all types prefer the most scathing denunciation to the ignominy of no notice or mention at all. But perhaps at this time, when the American people have charted their course for the next four years, it might be appropriate to clean out our body journalistic as well as our body politic, rid the American scene of one of its most awful, festering cankers, and make Pegler happy to boot.

Our Interest

Editor Constitution: Why so much hullyballoo about one English baby? There are millions born right here in America just as much princes by divine right as the British boy, but there are no celebrations and public demonstrations over our babies.

One would think that, with the radio and press of America whooping things up as they are, Uncle Samuel himself sired the English Prince. "What the heck," remarked a friend, "since Uncle Sam's gotta foot the bill from kiddie kars to princely palaces, why shouldn't he take an interest in the tyke?"

Least Is Best

Editor Constitution: We have become the world's greatest power in the short time from 1776 because first and foremost we have believed in the dignity and independence of man.

Surely to now turn back and adopt an FEPC is not in keeping with all our American traditions. It would ill become our President to insist on such a plan or program when the same smacks more of Communism than plain Americanism.

Place for Thompson

Editor Constitution: Now that the votes have been legally counted, I hope M. E. Thompson finally realizes that the people of Georgia did not then or ever vote for him to be Governor of Georgia. Even the majority of those voting for him for Lieutenant Governor did so without the thought that he would ever be Governor. I sure hope he goes on and runs his filling station now and won't try and ride the future as Ex-Governor, for he was only Acting Governor, never Governor. He ought to know by now the people did not and do not want him in any official capacity.

'Tonsorial Trust'?

Editor Constitution: Mayor and Council putting a minimum price on haircuts! Why and wherefore this OPA in reverse?

Is the Tonsorial Trust an offshoot of the New Deal "Brain Trust"? If so, looks like we need to break out a new deck of bicycles and cut for next deal.

If Hizzoner wants to put a floor under something, let him try his hand on some of these old houses around town. From where I sit, there are more homeless taxpayers needing attention than there are barbers cracking their knuckles in the shoeshine chair. REECE W. MITCHELL.

A Barber's Reply

Editor Constitution: Just wanted to enlighten Mr. Carl Garrett, of Atlanta. He wants to know why a barber can't cut hair for 25 cents if he so desires. Brother, I don't think any barber desires to do so because the average barber with prices as they are today can only take in about $70 per week and his commission is 65 percent, leaving the poor devil $45.50 for 65 hours' work, an average of 70 cents per hour. Will you work for that, Mr. Garrett?

I think $1.50 for a haircut is the least that should be charged. R. E. CHASTAIN.

Another Good One

Editor Constitution: Your interesting column of November 16 made me wish you had included in your brief list of historical novels Helen Topping Miller's "Dark Sails," for it tells so grippingly of the part that Georgia's great founder played in saving the southeastern section of our country from being aligned with the conquests of Spain.

Decatur Trolleys

Editor Constitution:

"Oh what a beautiful morning,
Oh what a beautiful day,
When those new Decatur trolleys
Came a-whizzing out our way!"

Everybody in our neighborhood went to town Monday morning—and how! Same people but they looked different! As Gertrude Stein put it: "Everything's the same—everything is different!" Joy shone in every face and everybody had a grand word for the new Decatur trackless trolley which they gaily "boarded!"

"This is heyday," grinned an ex-veteran, shaking the motorman's hand.

"What a relief from those old rattletraps," sighed a woman.

"If I hadn't recognized you I never would have known you," giggled a schoolgirl.

"We were going to sell our place but changed our minds now we have the trolleys," admitted an Old Timer.

"Dozens wanted to pick me up in automobiles, but I said no thanks, I'm waiting for the Robert E. Lee," laughed "Mrs. Pep."

"But, Grandmother, the Robert E. Lee was a ship," chided smarty granddaughter.

This could be a ship—a dream ship of this new day, thought I nostalgically, remembering my first "dream ship" ride to Decatur one Sunday afternon long ago with my first beau on an old "ratletrap" streetcar.

HOUSING AID SOUGHT—The Atlanta Social Workers' Club has filed a resolution with the Atlanta and Fulton County governments urging them to give "material" assistance to private groups attempting to provide low-cost rental housing. The resolutions ask that the governments help "plan, zone and give direct material assistance such as grading, curbing, and furnishing utilities." The Club points out that most of the building now being done is for high-income groups and that low-income families are being squeezed gradually out of their homes by projects such as the expressway.

GAS RECEIPTS UP—The Atlanta Gas Light Company has paid $6,457 into the city treasury in franchise taxes for the months of July, August and September, Joe Richardson, City Clerk, announced yesterday. The figure is almost $400 more than was paid for the corresponding period last year.

CHARGES DRAWN—Formal charges that two Atlanta Negro school teachers, Rheuben Taylor and his wife, Vera, left their duties last month and made a trip to Chicago have been prepared by Atlanta school authorities. VETO—Mayor Hartsfield yesterday vetoed a resolution to establish the position of receptionist in the City Personnel Department with the assertion that the shank of the year is the wrong time to add employees and a statement that all requests for new employees should be made to the 1949 Finance Committee. The Mayor approved all other measures passed to his desk from Monday's meetings of City Council and the Aldermanic Board. Included in the list was an agreement to expend upwards of $15,000 to widen and resurface streets in the area of a projected $2,000,000 warehouse development by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

MAYOR'S DAY—Mayor Hartsfield yesterday paid a courtesy call on newly-appointed State Highway Director Jim Gillis, attended a luncheon given at the Officers' Club at Fort MacPherson by Lt. Gen. Deal" program Mr. Truman advocated in his campaign.

"I think practically all Democrats will be very happy over the President's election," Rayburn asserted

"In my opinion it is not likely there will be any effective coalition between Republicans and so-called reactionary Democrats. I think a great many are being called reactionary Democrats who are not."

He said he hoped to have a "happy family" of 263 Democrats.

He was reminded there has been some criticism in the past on a lack of liaison between the President and Congress.

"I don't think there will be any complaint in the next administration of lack of co-operation between the White House and the Democratic leadership," he said.

Rayburn, asked how long the "honeymoon" would last, replied: "I hope, I trust, I believe for four years."

He said the Democrats would fill five vacancies on the all-powerful House Rules Committee and that he thought Representative McCormick, Democrat, Massachusetts, would be returned to his old post as Majority Leader when he becomes Speaker.

ern will be tough. A victory will carry the Wildcats to the Rose Bowl.

Over in the Southern Conference, Duke's Blue Devils were primed and ready for North Carolina's powerful Tarheels, but Choo Choo Justice and Company were picked to roll on—probably into the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day.

In the East most of the interest centered around age-old battle between the Harvards and the Yales and Dartmouth-Princeton skirmish. Army, the East's powerhouse and one of the country's major unbeaten and untied elevens, has an open date as do the Midshipmen of Navy, their foes next Saturday at Philadelphia.

Frank Leahy's Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, another national title contender, as likewise idle today and will conclude their 1948 slate next Saturday against Washington.

Two important battles loomed today in the Southwest Conference. Baylor Bears, losers of their last two games after getting away to a fast start, were bracketed against Doak Walker and his SMUs at Dallas in what was probably the standout game. TCU battles Rice and Arkansas tackles Tulsa in a non-loop game.

On the Pacific Coast, Oregon's Webfeet undefeated in the Coast Conference and battling California's Bears right lown to the wire for a Rose Bowl berth, takes on their heated rivals, Oregon State's Beavers. California faces Stanford and Southern California faces UCLA in other big games out there.

Other games of importance to their particular sections lined up as follows: Clemson vs. Duquesne; Missouri vs. Nebraska; Oklahoma vs. Kansas; Oklahoma Aggies vs. Kansas State; Indiana vs. Purdue; Washington vs. Idaho; Colorado vs. Colorado A. & M.; Rutgers vs. Fordham; Boston College vs. St. Mary's; Penn State vs. Pittsburgh; Columbia vs. Syracuse; Boston U. vs. Iowa; Washington & Lee vs. Delaware; North Carolina State vs. William & Mary, and Holy Cross vs. Temple.

Weather, Grudge Games May Produce Upsets

On the whole, the favorites continued to win last week, but, in a lot of cases, only with stirring fourth-quarter rallies.

Consequently, we are still looking for National Upset Week with only two Saturdays to go.

A few of those traditional rivals battle today, most of them next week. Anything can happen in these games and, as the gambler said the other day, the last three weeks are the weeks to take the points rather than give them.

His idea was based upon the weather and the grudge battles on tap.

Anyway, here we enter the home stretch with 221 winners, 53 losers and 13 ties for a season's record of .809.

GEORGIA TECH-THE CITADEL: Tech.

GEORGIA-FURMAN: Georgia.

AUBURN, OLE MISS and MISS STATE vs. OPEN DATE: Little chance for upsets here.

TENNESSEE-KENTUCKY: The Wildcats seem to have found themselves against Florida last week. But Tennessee did it several weeks ago. Kentucky has never beaten a Bob Neyland team and it isn't likely to succeed this time. Tennessee.

VANDERBILT-MARYLAND: The Old Liners and their Split-T will severely test the Commodores newly discovered scoring punch. Maryland whipped Vandy last season and Red Sanders would like nothing better than revenge. His club is rested and set and should win. Vandy.

ALABAMA-LSU: For some unexplainable reason we have a sneaking notion that the Tigers will win this one. Absurd as it sounds, the idea persists that Alabama is still not a good club, despite its win over Tech last week. LSU played its best game against Miss. State and could have won that one. Okay, we've convinced ourselves. LSU.

FLORIDA-MIAMI: Likely to develop into a free-scoring affair. The 'Gators, playing before homecoming fans, are six-point favorites, but Miami has a nifty T-formation attack which could upset the dope. But we'll string along with Florida.

NORTH CAROLINA-DUKE—One of those family squabbles. The Tarheels are heavy favorites and should win. But Duke isn't the worst team in the world and could upset with a super performance. North Carolina.

KANSAS-OKLAHOMA: For the Big Seven leadership. The Sooners are the choice, but don't sell J. V. Sikes' scrappy, pass-loving Jayhawks short.

TULANE-CINCINNATI: The Wave keeps rolling, easily. Tulane.

ALSO: Arkansas over Tulsa, Boston College over St. Mary's, Iowa over Boston U., Clemson over Duquesne, California over Stanford, Columbia over Syracuse, Harvard over Yale, Michigan State over Washington State, Missouri over Nebraska, Northwestern over Illinois, Michigan over Ohio State, Oklahoma Aggies over Kansas State, Penn State over Pittsburgh, Princeton over Dartmouth, Purdue over Indiana, TCU over Rice, SMU over Baylor, Holy Cross over Temple, Southern Cal over UCLA, William and Mary over N. C. State, Georgetown over George Washington.

'48 Bullpups Without An Outstanding Star

By JACK JACKSON

In past years, the University of Georgia's stronger freshman football teams have boasted one outstanding star, but the team which takes the field here Thursday against the Gorgia Tech freshmen in the annual Scottish Rite classic offers instead a well-rounded attack which moves along the ground as well as it does through the air.

Frank Sinkwich, Charley Trippi and Jim Gatewood were spark-plugs of past Bullpup powerhouses, yet the latest edition, which stands well to rank with the best first-year combines, lists no such "one-man team."

The 1948 Bullpups, who dropped a one-point decision to Auburn, then rebounded to rout a strong South Georgia College eleven, have two fine passers in Billy Grant and Bob Olshan. Grant, who along with Sonny Stephenson, also a member of the Bullpup squad, made up the famed Valdosta High "touchdown twins" of last Fall, is a 5-8, 168-pounder. He was an All-State choice while leading the Wildcats to the State prep championship. Olshan, who is a little taller at six feet, but weighs the same, hails from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., breeding ground of several Georgia stars of past seasons.

Favorite receivers for this duo of aerialists are Anthony (Zippy) Morocco, fleet-footed Youngstown, Ohio, ace; Bob Durand, another Wilkes-Barre native; Jimmy Henson, the wiry Gainesville end; Buford McGee, of Fitzgerald fame; Ed Filipovits, from Northampton, Pa., and Stephenson. Filipovits, Henson and McGee are ends, the others backs.

Along the ground, the Bullpups move with Morocco, Marvin Clayborn, Atlanta prep star of last season; Durand, Frank Lipski, 178-pounder from Larksville, Pa.; and Jerry Gallagher, who gained All-Southern recognition at Lake Worth, Fla., in 1947.

One of the big reasons for the success of the varied Bullpup attack is a stout forewall, which lists such former greats as Jeff Burgamy, Albany, and Ed Greenway, Athens, guards; and tackles Dick Steele, Atlanta, and Marion Campbell, another All-Southern choice from Chester, S. C.

The Bullpups begin tapering off early next week, and should be in top physical condition for the clash. Ed Greenway, the burly guard, has been hobbling on a bum knee for several weeks, but will be ready to go against the Baby Jackets. The game, from which entire proceeds go to the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children, is an annual Turkey Day feature at Grant Field.

6 Bulldogs Lost For Game Today

By JESSE OUTLAR
Constitution Sports Writer.

ATHENS—Georgia's Bulldogs collide with Furman here today in what is supposed to be a sparring session for the big engagement with Georgia Tech next Saturday.

However, with six Georgia regulars on the injured list and prospects of a heavy field, Georgia supporters in general and Coach Wallace Butts in particular remember what happened in the opening game last year, when the Bulldogs rushed over a desperate touchdown in the last two minutes to win, 13-7.

Folks who make a living by deciding how football games will come out have a very optimistic outlook concerning the Bulldogs and have imposed a 42-point handicap.

Coach Red Smith has pronounced his Hurricane squad in top shape for the first time in recent weeks, with the exception of Tackle Fleming Thornton who is out for the season with a knee injury incurred in the Clemson game.

On the other hand, Georgia Right Halfbacks Eli Maricich, Gus Hlebovy and Tackle Carl George won't even don uniforms for the game. Floyd (Breezy) Reid, another ailing member at right half, will see limited service if at all as will Guard Homer Hobbs and Tackle Jack Bush.

Prospects of a slippery ball will handicap both teams. Furman's offense is built around George Pruitt's bullet pegs and, of course, Johnny Rauch has kept Georgia on the bowl path all year with his great tossing.

Coach Wallace Butts has been worried all week that his Bulldogs will be looking ahead a week, while Furman is primed to come up with its best effort of the season.

In Paul Stombaugh, the Hurricane has one of the best punters in the nation. He has averaged 43.1 on 57 kicks in seven games.

Moon, Bonner Lead Smith in Miami Battle

By CHARLIE ROBERTS
Constitution Sports Writer

MIAMI—Coach Cecil Moon's Smith High eleven will be led into battle by newly-elected Co-Captains, Conrad Moon and Sid Bonner, when the Atlantans close their season here tonight in Orange Bowl Stadium with Miami Edison as the foe at 8:15 o'clock.

Moon, 200-pound triple threat fullback, has sparked the Smithies all season and needs only a single touchdown in this career-closing game to win the Georgia State Class AA scoring title. He now has tallied 75 points. Bonner, who alternates with his brother, Richard, at the quarterback slot, has proved to be a brainy signal caller, is a fine passer and receiver and an exceptionally hard hitting defensive man.

The Smithies, who will finish with a better overall record than any team in Atlanta's City League in the event they trim Edison, go into the fray against the Red Raiders as slight favorites. However, Miamians point out that while Edison has had a disastrous year the charges of Lee McKinney have been a "November ball club," and played their best game in bowing, 18-6, last week to the West Palm Beach Tigers, who are near the top of Florida's Big Ten League.

The residents of Hill Street arrived here via the Royal Palm a bit too late to take a hoped for limbering up drill yesterday afternoon. They are in tip-top condition for the tilt, however, with the exception of Billy Catlin, who is limping around on a bum ankle that was sprained in practice.

Jefferson Trounced By Morgan County

MADISON—Morgan County High defeated Jefferson by a 20-to-0 score here last night as Donald Shetter romped to two touchdowns.

Shetter tallied his first touchdown in the opening quarter and then came back for another in the second. Eugene Ruark rushed for the extra point after his first tally and Lamar Oxford bulled over after his second.

Bobby Few accounted for the final touchdown of the game in the late minutes of the second period.

Score by quarters:
Jefferson	0	0	0	0	0
Morgan County	7	13	0	0	20

Carrollton Stars As Monroe High Wins

WASHINGTON—Led by Billy Carrollton, who romped to three touchdowns, Monroe defeated Washington, 18 to 0, on a muddy field here last night.

Jimmy Dent, star Washington back, got away for an 80-yard run but was hauled down short of the goal.

Score by quarters:
Monroe	6	0	6	6	18
Washington	0	0	0	0	0

GRIDMAN REWEDS BEFORE DIVORCING HIS FIRST MATE

CINCINNATI — (AP)—Roger Stephens, Waterloo, Iowa, captain of the University of Cincinnati football team, remarried recently before being divorced from his first wife, his attorney and line coach, John Wiethe, said yesterday.

Stephens, who has seen little football action this year because of a leg injury, was married to Josephine Foraker on Sept. 26. She was secretary to Wiethe at the time.

Wiethe said yesterday Stephens recently learned that his first wife, the former Gayle Lenehan, 24, Waterloo, Iowa, did not file suit for divorce until Sept. 28. The divorce was granted in Fayette, Iowa, on Oct. 28. She charged cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple has an 18-month-old daughter.

The attorney and football coach said Stephens thought he had been divorced. He aded that the athlete and Miss Foraker will be remarried at a date to be set later.

Riverside Ties GMA, 0-0, in Muddy Game

By RUSSELL MUSGRAVE

GAINESVILLE — Slowed by mud and chilled by a steady downpour of rain, Georgia Military Academy and Riverside fought to a scoreless deadlock in their traditional football battle here yesterday afternoon.

GMA, winner of one game this season, outplayed the Riverside eleven, which didn't win a single decision all year. But the only time the Cadets could muster a touchdown effort, they made the mistake of having their backfield in motion and the play was called back.

The score, climaxing a 75-yard drive, came on a pass from Tailback Sam Oosterhoudt to Fullback Jack Rice. There was no doubt about the rule violation. Three handkerchiefs went down on the play.

GMA was within Riverside's 30-yard line seven times, once getting to the 16, but every time the visitors lost the ball on downs. The Blue Battalion, on the other hand, failed to get out of its own territory in the first half.

The one threat made by Riverside came on a blocked punt which End Sonny Mitchell recovered on the GMA 30, but three plays lost 30 yards and it was all over.

Brilliant kicking by Bill Hanson was a lifesaver to Riverside. Guards Fritz Fosnaugh and Center Nat Johnson were other outstanding defensive men.

Guard Robert Adams was a defensive star for GMA. Rice and Oosterhoudt shared offensive honors.

TOUGH TO BEAT—Francis Rogel, Penn State fullback, has one of the most unique football records in the nation. He's never played in a losing game. He has helped Penn State go unbeaten for 17 games the last two years and before that was a big factor in California (Pa.) College winning 10 in a row.

'Cats Seek First Win Over Vols

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—The Southeastern Conference's originial Hatfield-McCoy feud will be renewed here this afternoon when Tennessee and Kentucky draw beads on each other at close range on Shields-Watkins Field.

The opening volley is expected at about 2:30 o'clock and nothing will be riding on the outcome except a successful season for the winner. Both the Vols and the Wildcats enter the war with identical records of four-three-one but the class of Tennessee's opposition has been somewhat better and consequently the Vols reign nine-point favorites over their neighbors from up yonder.

Last night the woods around here were full of kissin'-kin of the two principals and from the whoopin' and hollerin' which went on into the wee hours of the morning, one would have assumed a national championship rested on the outcome.

But, sadly, only a battered beer keg—one of those traditional tokens—awaits the winner. And it is completely devoid of content.

It's been a-raining around these parts for a couple of days but the feudin' grounds have been covered with a canvas and is expected to be as dry as the City of Knoxville for the battle, what with the weatherman almost certain of clearing skies and cooler weather before kickoff time.

The Kentucky contingent, which arrived yesterday almost two hours late, was in a good humor. It had a feeling that the Wildcats of Bear Bryant had finally found themselves and would be able to win their first victory from a Bob Neyland-coached Tennessee team.

Indeed, Kentucky has shown remarkable improvement since their disastrous defeat at the hands of Georgia in the third game of the season and could take it all upon the slightest letdown by the Vols.

Bryant's blue-boys, one of the lightest but fastest clubs in the league, reached their season's offensive peak in defeating Florida, 34-15, last week.

The Vols, after upsetting favored Georgia Tech, dropped a close one to Mississippi in their last outing.

Field Trials Open Today at Lawrenceville

The Fall trials of the Atlanta Field Trial Club were to get under way at 8 o'clock this morning and, unless weather takes a hand, will run through Sunday afternoon late.

Scene of this year's trials is the H. Carson Smith farm two miles from Lawrenceville on the Duluth Road. W. O. Lindsay, Secretary of the club, says that persons wishing to attend the trials may go by way of Lawrenceville or out the Buford Highway to Duluth and turn right. Field trial markers will be placed along the road leading to the casting grounds from both Duluth and Lawrenceville.

Today's opening event will be the puppy stake. Club officials also hope to complete the derby stake and a few braces of the shooting dog stake this afternoon. Sunday's program will be featured by the crowning of the shooting dog winner and the big all-age stake champ. The meet is strictly an amateur affair, but should draw some of the best pointers and setters in the South.

Price Sherrill, of Mooresville, N. C., and George Harden, Union Springs, Ala., will judge the puppy derby and all-age stakes, while Carlisle (Red) Smith and Walter Hill will pass judgment on the shooting dogs.

Roosevelt Plays Rome Tonight

Roosevelt and Rome, two teams with identical records of four victories and five defeats, will wind up the season at Grady Stadium tonight.

With a soggy field in prospect, Roosevelt's usually potent attack may find the going tough against Rome's big line. However, the Tide rates a touchdown favorite over Stooge Davis' invading Hilltoppers.

SUGAR BOWL RUMOR: GEORGIA, SOONERS 'IN' IF BULLDOGS CAN DEFEAT TECH

By JACK GATES

NEW ORLEANS—(UP)—A Sugar Bowl bid, carrying with it a cool $100,000, will be at stake for four teams when Georgia's high-stepping Bulldogs clash with Georgia Tech's Ramblin' Wreck at Athens Nov. 27.

A person close to the Midwinter Sports Association, sponsors of the Sugar Bowl classic, said last night that if Georgia, led by Throwin' Johnny Rauch, can down twice-beaten Tech, they'll be making the trip to New Orleans come New Year's Day.

And their opposition in the Louisiana sugar cane belt classic will be Oklahoma, providing the Sooners, the surprise team of the Big Seven Conference, get by Kansas and Oklahoma A & M.

But if the Ramblin' Wreck halts the deadly throwing of Rauch and takes the measure of the Bulldogs, Georgia will be out in the cold as far as a Sugar Bowl bid is concerned and so will the boys from the Oklahoma plains.

Then Tulane, the dark horse of the Southeastern Conference, and powerful and once-tied North Carolina would meet in the New Year's classic, that is, provided:

The Tarheels take Duke and Virginia, Tulane beats Cincinnati and their traditional rival, LSU.

Tech Encounters The Citadel Here

By JACK JACKSON

Quinn Decker, a man who submitted his resignation, then was offered and accepted a new five-year contract, all within the past seven days, leads his oft-beaten Citadel Bulldogs into Grant Field this afternoon to meet a Georgia Tech team which admittedly has its eyes cocked toward Athens where it meets Georgia next Saturday.

The Bulldogs, who've won just two games this season against five losses, aren't expected to extend the Jackets, and that's just the way Coach Bobby Dodd and his staff hope it goes. The reason is simple—they'd like to rest their regulars as much as possible. They don't want to risk costly injuries that might weaken them for their traditional battle next week.

Two Jackets, Fullback Frank Ziegler and Center Lewis Hook, won't play at all. Ziegler is still mending his thumb, broken in practice right after the Tennessee game, and Hook banged up a knee against Alabama. Both are hoping to be ready for Georgia. A third Jacket, Halfback Bob McCoy, the team's top running back, is still not fully recovered from an injured leg, but will play.

Although the Jackets aren't out to run up a score against Citadel, there are two extra factors against the visitors. First, Tech's scoring punch has been limited in the past two weeks, and may explode in the final rehearsal for the big one. Second, it's the final home game of the season, and the final home game in the careers of 13 members of the Tech squad. They want to bow out in fine style.

Citadel's lack of success this season has been due in a great part to the failure of their air attack. As Coach Decker checked 36 Bulldogs into town yesterday in time for a workout at Rose Bowl Field, his aerial hopes rested on Halfback Walt Brugh and Fullback Lucian Pinckney. Neither has been overly effective thus far. The Bulldogs are in good shape, except for injuries to Tackle Ken Drawdy and Backs Bob Gunning and Brugh. Brugh, tailback in the Tennessee style Citadel offense, will start, however.

The 13 seniors who will be playing their final games at Grant Field are George Brodnax and Jimmy Castleberry, ends; Jack Glenn, tackle; Bill Healy and Hays McKinney, guards; Hook and Ray Smith, centers; Joe Brown, quarterback, Dinky Bowen, Al Lansing and Jack Peek, halfbacks, and Morris Harrison, fullback.

Some 25,000 fans are expected to be in the stands at kick-off time, 2:30. The weather man predicts clearing skies, and Tech should be able to repeat its effortless 38-0 win of last season.

Jordan Beats Columbus, 12-6

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Jordan High's Red Jackets scored a 12-to-6 victory over the Columbus Blue Devils last night in the 27th meeting between the teams of the two schools before a crowd estimated at 12,500 fans.

Jack Floyd, a lightweight halfback that Coach "Kid" Cecil, of Jordan, has kept under wraps most of the season, gave the Red Jackets their margin of victory.

He took Bobby Trawick's kick-off that opened the second half of the game and raced 77 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown. The teams were tied at 6-all at the time.

JIMMY BIVINS WINS BY KAYO--- FROM HIS WIFE

CLEVELAND — (UP)—Police yesterday charged heavyweight Challenger Jimmy Bivins with scoring a knockout punch on his wife.

Mrs. Dollie Bivins, 24, told police that her husband socked her and knocked her out because dinner wasn't ready when he came home. She was treated at the hospital for a minor concussion and bruises.

Police issued a warrant charging Bivins with the attack.

Bivins denied the story. He said "she had threatened earlier to make trouble for me after the Louis fight. This must be what she meant."

Bivins fought a four-round no-decision exhibition with Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis here Wednesday.

Hartwell Battles Toccoa to Tie

HARTWELL — Toccoa's undefeated football team battled Hartwell to a scoreless tie on a rain-soaked field here last night, thus eliminating the Hart County team from the Region Four, Class B title race.

It was Hartwell's second tie, and left Toccoa and Monroe deadlocked for the Region leadership. Both are unbeaten but have been tied once. Monroe earlier tied Hartwell, 7-7. The two teams will meet in a play-off next week for the Region crown.

Decatur Gains Playoffs, Beating W. Fulton, 19-6

By JACK JACKSON

Courts Redford, Decatur High's brilliant T-quarterback, led the Bulldogs to a 19-6 victory over West Fulton and a berth in the Region Four, Class A football playoff in a bruising game last night on a waterlogged field at Decatur.

The Decatur victory left them bracketed opposite LaGrange High in the play-off, slated for next weekend. Both teams lost one game during the regular season, Decatur to Griffin, and LaGrange to Gainesville.

Redford, who ranks with the State's best, had a busy night, tossing one of his famous jump passes to Jim Harper for 42 yards and the second Bulldog touchdown, then heaving one to Don Anderson for the third score on a play which covered 29 yards. He had started the first scoring drive by intercepting a Lloyd Coursey pass and returning to the Owl 43.

Despite the water-soaked field, both teams used their aerial arms with surprising success. The Bulldogs rolled up 122 yards passing, while the Owls countered 105, with their lone score coming on a Bobby Hines-to-Jimmy Strange toss which netted 60 yards.

It was one of the hardest fought games of the season, with the vicious line play reaching a peak midway in the third quarter when one Owl was ejected after an exchange of blows.

In addition to Redford, Anderson, Stone, Butch Dowman, Willis Holland and Dave Braden sparked the Bulldog offense, operating behind a tough forewall. Sonny Conn, Coursey and Billy Ralston headed the Owl attack, while Pete Scogin, Bill Mauldin and Hines paced the Owl line.

After an exchange of punts, Redford hauled in Coursey's toss, falling on his own 43. Stone and Johnston moved it to the 37, then Anderson sped off left tackle to the 15 and a first down. On the first play, Stone broke through tackle and scored standing up. Dowman converted, and it was 7-0.

Just a few moments later West Fulton struck for its first and only score. Lamar Tillison came out of a huge pile-up with a Bulldog fumble at the Owl 38. Conn moved it forward two yards, then Hines came across on an end around and heaved a pass to Strange who took it in at the Bulldog 25 and outran his pursurers to score. Coursey attempted a quarterback sneak for the point and failed, and the Bulldogs led, 7-6, a slim margin which looked mighty important for awhile.

Midway in the second quarter, the Bulldogs moved 80 yards to another touchdown and the partisan crowd relaxed a bit. Redford then hauled in Conn's punt and returned 10 yards to the Decatur 20. Stone made 14 in two tries, then Vaughn, Braden and Stone moved it to the Bulldog 45. Braden broke around left end for 16 yards to the Owl 39, and after Holland had lost three, Redford jumped up and hit Harper over center. The Bulldog captain did the rest, fighting off and outrunning his opponents to make it 13-6. Dowman missed but it didn't matter.

The team changed jerseys at the half because of the water and mud, and after a scoreless third quarter, the Bulldogs took advantage of a break to score again in the final period. Conn sliced a punt off his foot, out of bounds at West Fulton's 22. On the first play, Decatur was set back to the 36 by an illegal use of the hands penalty, but four plays later they had scored. Braden got one, and Anderson added six. A Redford pass was broken up, then on fourth down, Redford fired to Anderson who fell over the goal line. Dowman missed again.

Despite the wet field, only one fumble was lost, that being the one which led to West Fulton's score.

O'Keefe Falls In Pensacola; Score 27-13

PENSACOLA HIGH SCHOOL STADIUM, PENSACOLA, Fla.—Pensacola High School broke back into the win column here last night by taking a scrappy O'Keefe High, of Atlanta, 27 to 13 before approximately 5,500 fans in the new Pensacola stadium, which was dedicated with short services prior to the start of the game.

It was a battle between Monroe Matheny, Pensacola tailback, and the O'Keefe secondary, with the Tiger ball carrier taking first honors.

O'Keefe broke into the scoring column first by covering a Pensacola fumble on the Pensacola 18. It was the third fumble within three minutes of the start. Jack Powell uncorked a 16-yard pass to Opal Moon for the touchdown following a two-yard gain by Warren Harper. Marion Skinner's attempt at the extra point from placement was wide.

Shortly afterwards Pensacola opened a 33-yard march and three plays later Bobby Joe Ready broke away for 29 yards and the touchdown. Center Bobby Straughn made good the first of three conversions in four attempts.

In the second period Pensacola took possession of the ball on its own 35-yard line and in four plays Matheny broke over right tackle and went 55 yards to the one-yard line. He was hauled down from behind by Billy Cole. On the next play Arthur Sabota drove over and Straughn converted.

The fighting Irish drove 33 yards in the second stanza with Bobby Lee going over from the one and Skinner converting for their other touchdown.

Matheny came back into the limelight again when he took a punt return on his own 12 and raced through the entire O'Keefe team for the touchdown. Straughn missed the boot.

Late in the fourth period O'Keefe got off a bad kick from its own 37 and it traveled only five yards. Five plays later the Tigers hit pay dirt with Matheny going over. The Tiger flash, only a sophomore, completed a 25-yard aerial to Allan Davis on the march to the goal. That put the ball on the 10. Matheny sliced over right tackle for nine yards and then he bucked it over and Straughn made good his third point.

Pensacola made seven first downs to 10 for O'Keefe. Pensacola attempted three passes and completed two for 55 yards. O'Keefe tried 18 aerials and connected for seven for 109 yards.

Pensacola gained 178 yards rushing while O'Keefe gained 86. Pensacola fumbled four times and O'Keefe fumbled five times.

Pensacola was penalized 35 yards while O'Keefe walked off the field without having a penalty called against them.

Fitzgerald Rips Cordele, 45-6

FITZGERALD—The Purple Hurricane of Fitzgerald continued its unbeaten march here last night by defeating the hitherto undefeated Cordele Bulldogs, 45-6, before a crowd of 2,500.

The class A Hurricane had too many guns for its Class B rivals and the reserves played half of the game for the winners. It was against reserves that Hoyt Brogdon, of Cordele, got loose on a kickoff return to gallop 92 yards for the only Bulldog score in the second quarter.

Lamar Wynn scored two touchdowns to lead off for Fitzgerald, going 34 yards once and 10 after taking a lateral from Gene Pedrick.

Lawrence Hargrove, who tallied three touchdowns, reversed his field and dashed 80 yards for the third Hurricane score. Hargrove also got the next tally on a one-yard plunge and he went 50 yards for the final score in the fourth period.

Johnny Williams bucked over for one yard and the payoff in the second quarter and Harvey Jay got away for 40 yards and a touchdown early in the third period.

Murphy Romps Over Grady, 28-6

By JESSE OUTLAR

Murphy's Eagles, shaking their shifty backs loose for three touchdown gallops of more than 40 yards, trounced Grady's Gray Knights, 28-6, in the final game of the season for both teams at Grady Stadium last night on a soggy field.

Over 2,000 fans watched the Eagles march 43 yards for a first-quarter score and later saw some of the best broken field running in a City League game this year.

Fullback Gene Hess turned in the most dazzling jaunt of the night on the last play of the first half. After intercepting a pass by Quarterback Doug Tanner on the Murphy 45, Hess shook End Keith Comer off his jersey, reversed his field twice and then finally set sail behind perfect interference for 55 yards.

That set the pattern of things to come. Halfback Gerald Thomason, on Murphy's first play from scrimmage in the third quarter, found a gap at right tackle, twisted back to the left and loped 44 yards into the end zone.

A few moments later, little Charley Crumbley sneaked past left tackle and loped 43 yards to pay dirt through the amazed Gray Knight defenders.

Joe Willingham, who turned in a fine defensive performance, kicked all four points.

Grady, although outclassed never stopped trying, and early in the final quarter they parlayed a great kick by Frank Arnau into a touchdown.

Arnau booted a 41-yard beauty out of bounds on the Murphy 3 and when the Eagles' Jack Helms tried to kick it out, he was rushed and sliced the ball out on the Murphy nine.

Two line plunges reached the seven and then Arnau sailed the sloppy ball to Frank Mayo on the one. On the next play, Arnau caught the Eagles flat with a pitch to Lewis Zakas in the end zone.

It took Murphy five plays to cover that 43-yard route to their first score, with a 19-yard run by Hess and a 13-yard sprint by Thomason featuring the drive. Jack Hopkins smacked over from the one for the payoff.

The Eagles missed another chance early in the second quarter after Thomason, the Eagles' outstanding player, scampered 35 yards with an Arnau punt. Two line plays reached the Grady three and Nix bucked over for the points, but a backfield-in-motion penalty nullified the touchdown. Grady braced to take over.

Up front, Tackle Stanley Ellis, Guard Gene Dickerson and the other Eagle linemen carved out big holes for those fleet backs to scoot through.

But for End Louis Zakas, Guard Vic Moraitakis and Tackle Jack Annis, the margin against Grady would have been much more. Charles Lewis and Phaeton Constantinides were the offensive standouts for the Gray Knights.

Cartersville Overpowers Athens, 44-21

CARTERSVILLE—Cartersville's powerful grid array rolled high, wide and handsome over a completely outclassed Athens High eleven in a muddy game here last night, 44 to 21.

Paced by Joe Powers, Jimmy Colvin, Bill Rainey and Freshman Bobby Dodd, the Cartersville eleven piled up a 38-to-0 lead in the first three quarters and then reserves took over to let the Trojans tally three times.

The victors pushed over two touchdowns in the first quarter on Powers' 15-yard run and a 47-yard beauty by Colvin. They added another in the second period when Rainey took a handoff from Dodd and sped 33 yards to pay dirt.

On the third period kickoff, Powers gathered the ball in at his own 18 and raced through the entire Athens team for 82 yards. A 20-yard dash by Rainey got another touchdown a few minutes later and a third score for the period came just before its end when Dodd passed to Charles Ross from the Athens 17. Ross had set up the marker with a 46-yard run on an end-around.

A pair of fumbles got Athens two quick touchdowns in the fourth period. The Trojans recovered the first one on the Cartersville 22 and Bill Cook went the distance on the first play.

Then during the next series of downs, there was a fumble at the 10 and Athens recovered again. Jimbo Thornton clashed through for the touchdown.

The Cartersville regulars came back in briefly but retired to the bench again after Rainey had dashed off tackle for 70 yards and another touchdown.

Then Athens began a steady drive that ended when Thornton cracked over from the five. Center Frank Eberhart place-kicked all Athens points.

Athens	0	0	0	21	—21
Cartersville	12	6	20	6	—44

Scoring touchdowns: Murphy: Hopkins, Hess, Thomason, Crumbley. Grady: Zakas (on pass from Arnau). Extra points—Murphy: Willingham, (4 from placement).

Chinese Drive Home Big Victory at Suchow

NANKING—(AP)—Triumphant government divisions yesterday drove home their first big victory in months of civil war, reportedly fanning out 70 miles east and 30 miles north of Suchow.

Gen. Huag Po-tao's Seventh Army group, whose firm stand on the east flank helped turn the course of a battle that saved Nanking, raced east along the Lunghai railroad. This is China's main east-west line.

Pro-Government press dispatches reported his troops had reached Hsinanchen, 70 miles east of Suchow. If true, they are halfway to Lienyunkang, East Coast port where three Nationalist divisions were landed in the early stages of the battle.

Government troops also claimed control of 30 miles of the main trunk railway north of Suchow. This is the line from Tientsin and Nanking.

Gen. Chow Chih-jou's rejuvenated Air Force, which was the decisive factor in turning back the great Communist lunge toward the heart of China, took a rest. The fliers were heroes in a grateful capital.

Nanking, relaxed for the first time after months of tension, speculated on what caused such a reversal of form in its Air Force.

Some sources said Chow was angry because his pilots failed to halt the Reds in North China and Manchuria. He gave them such a tongue lashing that they really opened up for the first time.

Others believed unconfirmed reports that Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault was offering to revive his "Flying Tigers" may have stung the pilots into greater effort.

Official sources said military authorities, considering the battle over, have asked railway officials to accompany troops as they move north to Suchow in order to speed repair on sections of the railway damaged by the Reds.

"How soon the Communists are able to resume attacks against the Suchow area depends largely on how many casualties and losses of supplies they actually suffered," one observer said.

The Government says the Communists lost 130,000 men in killed wounded and captured and puts its own losses at 40,000.

In any case, it is unlikely the Communists will venture out into the Suchow plain again until cloudy skies of Winter make close Government air support difficult.

In North China, the besieged Hopeh Province capital of Paoting, still held out against Communist assault, as did the Shansi Province capital of Taiyuan, to the southwest, a Peiping dispatch reported.

Christmas Trees Caught in Strike

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—A ship load of Christmas trees got caught in the longshoremen's strike.

The $45,000 cargo arrived from St. John's, Newfoundland, but there wasn't anybody on hand to do the unloading.

The Smiling Jim Potato Company, which was to receive the trees for distribution in six States, said it would try to get union permission to hire longshoremen on its own terms.

Company Manager Sol Treadwell said the trees must be unloaded shortly or the heat of the ship's hold will ruin them.

PLAY HONORS DIXIE WRITERS—King's Players' Dramatic Club of Christ the King School presented a play Friday night honoring the writers of the South, among them Henry Grady, Father Abram Ryan and Father Tabb. Cotton Men Told Now Is Time to Adjust

Looking toward the day of increased competition in world trade lanes, a government economist yesterday warned the cotton industry that now is "the most opportune time" to make adjustments to a situation of normalcy.

"Practically all the American cotton moving today is the direct result of some government program," P. K. Norris, agricultural economist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, told delegates to the Southern Economic Conference which met at the Atlanta division of the University of Georgia.

"A large surplus in America will mean a government program all along the line—a program of production, of distribution and financing—and maybe an export subsidy," he said.

"I would like to see the cotton-growing industry of the United States stand on its own feet," said the economist, who toured Europe last year in the interest of future markets. "I think this is sound and necessary. If we cannot export cotton in the years ahead as we have in the past, the industry should adjust itself to the situation."

D. Gray Miley, Superintendent of the Delta Branch Experiment Station at Stoneville, Miss., told the assembled college economists, management and labor representatives that farm mechanization meant a trend away from the smaller farm unit.

Mechanized experiments at the station, he declared, had cut the labor requirement on an acre of cotton from 146 man-hours to 21.5.

Earlier in the day, George Perkel, a research specialist for the CIO-TWUA, said that a "northern shift" in ownership of larger textile mills in the South would result in a high mortality rate for smaller mills.

As a consequence, Perkel declared, "Southern economy must insure such a high level of buying power among its people as to offset the export of income which will result from the shift."

Indicator Will Signal Power Line Trouble

GRAY, Ga.—(AP)—Two Georgians have designed what they call a revolutionary electronic power line and transformer trouble indicator.

Manager Wayne Johnson and Engineer Jack Bryan of the Tri-County Electric Membership Corporation, said the indicator, installed on transformers along the power lines, would relay to the central office signals indicating and locating trouble spots.

They have applied for a patent on the indicator. Plans and specifications for manufacturing the equipment have been submitted to the Signal Engineering and Manufacturing Company of New York.

The two said the point of line interruption could easily be determined by the indicators on the board of central headquarters. With certain modifications, the equipment may be used to cut off electric water heaters from the line during peak hours and for switching other power equipment, the inventors added.

PHA Spread Puts Atlantan In Washington

A reorganization of the Public Housing Administration, announced at Washington yesterday, will result in the breaking up of the five PHA regional offices in New York, Atlanta, Chicago, Fort Worth and San Francisco, into 10 field offices to include those cities and Philadelphia, Detroit, Richmond, Los Angeles and Seattle.

Under the new program, John F. Broome, Regional Director in Atlanta, will move to Washington to become Asst. Commissioner for Field Operations, with jurisdiction over field offices in Atlanta and Fort Worth. These two offices will handle PHA affairs in the Southeastern, deep South States and as far west as New Mexico and Colorado. Additionally, Broome will have supervision over PHA activities in West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Broome will be assisted in the Washington office by Charles L. Levy, former Asst. Regional Director here, as Disposition Officer, and Clarence J. Stengel, of the Fort Worth regional office, as Management Officer.

Arthur J. Hanson, currently Area Director for Tennessee and Virginia in the Atlanta regional office, will become Director of the new field office in Richmond.

M. B. Satterfield, of Atlanta, Area Director for Georgia and Florida, will be given supervision over the Atlanta field office.

The Fort Worth field office will be headed by B. F. Vinson.

PHA officials announced the process of shifting functions and personnel from regional offices to Washington already has begun, and will be completed shortly after the first of the new year. The new field offices will be organized Dec. 6, in cities where regional offices are now located, and will move to their new headquarters cities in January and February.

John Taylor Egan, PHA Commissioner, announced at Washington that the purpose of the new decentralization and reorganization is to establish closer and more direct controls over the 4,848 public housing projects for which PHA has responsibility.

BACK TO THEIR GRITS AND GIRLS

Georgia's Future Farmers Tell Of Exciting Stay in Missouri

By SHIRLEY ZIEGLER
Constitution Staff Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Georgia's Future Farmers will come home to their "grits and girls today," as Fred Carter, of Cairo, says.

They will arrive in Atlanta at 8:35 a. m., after an exciting week in Kansas City, where they attended the National Future Farmers of America Convention.

Most of the boys spent a good part of yesterday sleeping off the effects of a 5 a. m. reveille.

Those who were wide awake enough to answer questions gave these replies to the question, "What part of the trip did you enjoy the most?"

Bobby Rogers, 15, of Moultrie, said: "President Truman's home because we study about it. Also we went out to Swope Park (the zoo) and saw all those animals out there." Bobby made the trip as a home improvement winner.

"I liked the automobile factory the best," said Roy Hawkins, 18, of Ramhearst. Roy was also a home improvement winner.

J. T. Wilkes, 20, of Jefferson, also recommended the tour to the Chevrolet plant, "because of the many different machines and their methods of assembling the cars." He received an American Farmer degree at the Convention.

"My work with the choir," said Jimmy McConnell, 17, of Powder Springs. "In fact, that's about all I did." Jimmy and Georgia, three other members of the national FFA chorus, spent most of their time in Kansas City rehearsing.

John L. Steed, Jr., 18, of Grovetown, put in another bid for the Chevrolet plant. "Also the experience of talking with boys from different parts of the country," he added. John received his American Farmer degree at the Convention, too.

"I enjoyed seeing some very beautiful farming land, but did not see as much as I expected to. I enjoyed very much the national public speaking contest, and all the business sessions, especially the discussions on the National Future Farmer magazine," said Bob Blalock, 16, of Rabun Gap. Bob is President of the Georgia Association FFA.

Fred Carter, 16, of Cairo, reported "the thing that did me the most good was seeing the different types of farm lands, how they were protected from erosion; also the co-operation of all the boys during the convention. I was especially interested in all the business sessions." Fred served as drum major for the National FFA Band.

"I enjoyed all the business sessions and entertainment," said Robert Crocker, 19, of Cornelia. "I also enjoyed meeting so many boys."

Hal Cook, 18, of Milan, said: "I enjoyed seeing how these well-trained boys carried on the programs and business sessions. I liked the entertainment and I enjoyed being in the chorus."

"That sleep I had a few minutes ago," Calvin Ruffin, 17, of Yatesville, said jokingly. More seriously, he added, "the massing of the flag ceremony impressed me the most." Calvin, Hall and Robert were Georgia's other chorus members.

Wallace Rodgers, 18, of Tignall, also enjoyed the trip through the farming section the most. "Their land is better cultivated than ours," he said. Wallace was State Pasture Improvement winner.

BOOST TICKET SALES

Operetta Stars Vocalize For Optimists in Preview

Atlanta Optimists, busily engaged in selling tickets to the Optimist-sponsored operetta, "New Moon," got the stimulus they needed yesterday to "finish the job."

Golden-voiced Brian Sullivan, of the Metropolitan Opera, and Hazel Poss, Georgia-born soprano, gave the Optimist Club a musical preview of what the audience will hear when "New Moon" is presented at the Roxy Theater Monday through Wednesday.

Sullivan sang the plaintive "Lover, Come Back to Me," and he was joined by Miss Poss in singing "Wanting You," another of the melodious favorites from the Sigmund Romberg operetta.

For her solo selection, Miss Poss chose a comedy number about two stingy old codgers, entitled "Brother Will, Brother John."

Optimist President Hal Drake pronounced the tantalizing sample of musical wares all that was needed to make Optimists sell their tickets to the forthcoming Atlanta Civic Opera production.

The Rev. Paul S. James, Pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, gave the meeting a "Thanksgiving Message," in which he stressed America's many reasons for thankfulness.

He contrasted this country's liberty and plenty with conditions in Russia where, he said, "a militant atheism has built a tyranny that should fall in 30 days if it weren't supported by guns."

VA Suspends 5,000 Trainees

More than 5,000 Georgia veterans have been suspended from GI training subsistence rolls because of the failure of trainers in schools and job-training establishments to make October progress reports, Vaux Owen, VA Regional Manager, announced yesterday.

The reports, Owen said, were due Nov. 1, and failed to arrive by Nov. 10, as required, and the VA has no recourse except to suspend payments of subsistence on the 10th of each month if reports fail to arrive.

Owen said the veterans may be restored to the rolls for payment, provided their reports are received before Dec. 31, but after that date it will be too late. Progress reports, he explained, are required for all veterans in schools and job-training establishments, but not from colleges, institutions of higher learning and veterans in institutional farm training programs. Responsibility for making the reports, he added, is up to the trainer.

Strike, Liquor, Laundry, Cab Rulings Read

The Georgia Supreme Court yesterday upheld prison sentences for strikers, ruled that liquor can be sold in stores less than three miles from a church, and declared a college can operate a laundry and dry cleaning plant for its students.

The Court upheld 10 and 20-day sentences for 10 strikers at the Swift and Company plant in Moultrie who were charged with contempt of court. It ruled the men knew of an injunction against violence and deliberately violated the lower court's order.

An attempt by Sol. Gen. W. H. Lanier, of the Middle Georgia Circuit, to enforce an 1891 law banning liquor stores within three miles of a church failed when the Supreme Court agreed that a 1938 Act only prohibits the sale of liquor within 100 yards of a church.

Some Georgia laundries complained that a college shouldn't compete with private business by doing cleaning for students and personnel. The Court ruled a college may provide such service for the benefit of students and others connected with the schools.

The Associated Cab Company's attack on the right of the City of Atlanta to let an exclusive contract for cab service at the Municipal Airport also was nullified by the Supreme Court, which backed the city's contentions.

School Fund Hike

SUMMERVILLE — Chattooga County teachers will receive a 10 percent increase in salaries during November and December, it is disclosed by C. B. Akin, County School Superintendent. The 109 teachers and principals in the County will receive a total of approximately $1,400, it was stated. School bus drivers' pay will also be slightly increased.

Institution Trustees Named by Baptists

Officers and institution trustees from the Atlanta area, elected by the annual Georgia Baptist Convention here recently, follow:

J. C. Daniel, Bessie Tift Trustee; Mrs. Theo Forbes and J. M. Sheffield, Jr., Shorter College Trustees; Warren Sewell, Truett-McConnell Trustee; Mrs. F. H. Harris, Georgia Baptist Children's Home Trustee; I. M. Sheffield, B. McManus, B. L. Bugg, G. F. Garrison, W. M. Willingham, Jr., and Harrison Jones, Georgia Baptist Hospital Trustees; O. M. Seigler, Georgia Baptist Endowment Committee; J. M. Hudson, Graham Foundation Trustee; L. H. Miller, Annual Program Committee; Jesse M. Dodd and L. D. Newton, Committee on Baptist History; James P. Wesberry, Baptist Radio Commission.

Citizens Group Praised by Dr. Overton

The slateful of recommendations for health, welfare and community improvement passed yesterday at the closing session of the Fifth Annual Georgia Citizens Council won high praise from a noted youth counselor, who has visited Georgia several times in the past.

Dr. Grace Sloan Overton called the program building of the conference "beyond anything any sociologist could have hoped for, without precedent in its insight, integrity of process and sensitivity to state needs."

W. Elliot Dunwody, President of the Citizens Council reported an attendance of 826 delegates, representing 126 communities, and remarked that the results of the sessions will be felt increasingly as delegates take back home the plans for community improvement.

"We are especially proud of the action that appears to have come out of this conference," Dunwody added.

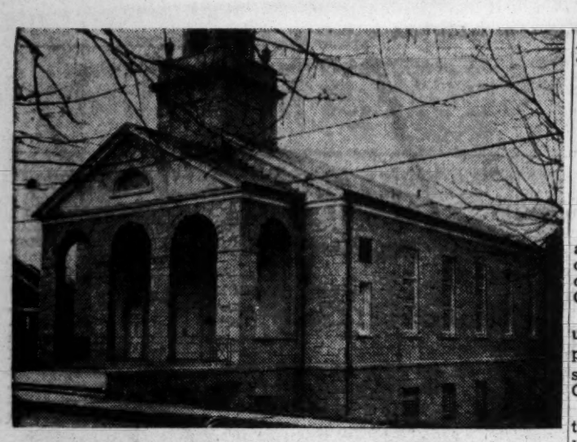
Dr. Charles S. Cameron, director of medical and scientific research, American Cancer Society, was the final speaker of the main conference.

He scored Americans as a "race guilty of complacency," and said that we continue to fail to develop our human resources by the continuing neglect of man's spirit.

Buyers Discuss Problems at Tech

Wednesday night from 7 until 9, the Georgia Association of Purchasing Agents held the first of a series of class-room discussions at Georgia Tech. Fifty-five members, including two women, who are either purchasing agents, assistant purchasing agents, or buyers, were present.

The series of classes is a voluntary project to discuss internal procurement principles. Meeting every Wednesday night, the group will discuss buying problems and hear guest speakers who are chosen from men prominent in the field. Charles Hayes, of the Emory University School of Business Administration, was the speaker for the first session.



KIRKWOOD METHODISTS' NEW CHURCH—This Stone Mountain granite church, styled along Colonial Georgian lines, recently was occupied by the congregation of the Kirkwood Methodist Church. The new building was erected at a cost of $122,000. It will accommodate 600 people. This is the third building occupied by the church members since organization in 1894.

STEP TOWARD HALTING REDS

Methodist 4-Year Plan For Missions Outlined

By PAUL JONES

A four-year plan of the Methodist Church for sending overseas approximately 1,000 new missionaries and for doubling present medical, evangelical, agricultural and educational services was outlined during a mass meeting conducted by the Board of Missions and Church Extension at the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church.

Dr. Ralph E. Diffendorfer, Executive Secretary of the Board, pointed to the new program as a step toward halting the spread of Communism in Europe and Asia.

"Either we are going to rise to the opportunities that are before us today or we are going to be moved increasingly upon the sidelines and other forces and agencies are coming forward with positive programs to meet the world's needs," Dr. Diffendorfer said.

"The Soviet idea is one that speaks directly to the problems of Asia, speaks to the hungry and the landless, the debt-ridden and the oppressed. The frontiers of world Communism inch forward all over the map. Christians must either serve the needs of all God's men better than the Communists do or else prepare to yield ground to them.

Stocks Head Upward After Slow Start

NEW YORK—(AP)—A postelection stock market rally made a little more headway Friday. Persistent demand lifted prices to final gains of fractions to 2 points or so.

Price trends were cloudy at the outset but buying power soon expanded. For most of the day the general tendency was to rise. Demand faltered during the last few minutes of trading, though, and many issues receded from the best levels scored earlier in the session.

Turnover failed to top 1,000,000 shares for the third day in a row but at 990,000 shares was well ahead of Thursday's 780,000, a low since mid-August. Activity tended to increase when prices improved and slackened during periods of less insistent demand.

Friday's improvement was a continuation of a forward trend which has been maintained, with only a single interruption, since late last week. The rally, however, has recovered only a fraction of the postelection selling drives.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1S	2D	P	2NT
P	3NT	Db.	P
P	P

There appears to be considerable confusion in the public mind on the subject of lead directing doubles. This thing can be carried too far. It is not at all uncommon to hear conversations something like: "Partner, when I doubled four spades I thought you would lead the dummy's suit." Or, "Sorry, partner, I thought when you doubled five clubs I was obliged to lead a heart. This is all sheer drivel. When a player doubles four spades or five clubs it is because he thinks he has the contract beaten and not to request a lead of some strange suit.

There are one or two cases in which a penalty double requires certain specific leads but this convention must not be extended beyond those limited cases. First and foremost is the double of a slam contract. The convention calls for the lead of the suit first bid by dummy. This will frequently permit third hand to obtain a ruff of the opening lead, or permit him to circumvent some psychic bid by the dummy in an effort to prevent the lead of a certain suit.

Then there are double of no-trump contracts. If the defending side has not bid the double of the final contract suggests but does not demand the lead of dummy's suit if no better lead is available. Where, however, the dummy's suit has been rebid, the suggestion does not apply, and the opening leader should try to find a more effective lead. Where the defending side has done some bidding the double absolutely demands the lead of the defender's suit, and it does not mean maybe.

In today's hand South became declarer at a contract of three no-trump after West had opened the bidding with a spade. East did not have much to be proud of, except for the supporting queen of spades, but he had a feeling that the enemy had contracted for game with only one stopper in the suit. It was also clear to him that his partner's spade holding must be such that the suit would not offer an attractive opening lead. The only hope as he saw it was to insure the opening of his partner's bid suit, so he made a very sporting double. Such action is not recommneded with hands this weak because of the danger of a devastating redouble, but East felt desperate.

West took no cognizance of his partner's double and selected the very fine heart sequence for his opening lead. Declarer took the first trick, drove out the ace of diamonds and was assured of nine tricks. With the spade opening, four tricks would be established in that suit before the ace of diamonds was dislodged. Had partner not doubled the final contract West's lead of the king of hearts would be recommended, but under the circumstances he had no right to opinions of his own.

SHOW GOES ON

Her Hair Afire, Star Sings as Rescuer Works

NEW YORK—(AP)—A bit of unexpected business was acted out Thursday night in the musical play, "Magdelena," but it won't happen again if the producers can help it.

It occurred as Dorothy Sarnoff, star of the show, knelt on the stage during a highly emotional singing the song "Lost."

Suddenly a floodlight directly over the stage exploded, showering bits of hot glass and filament on her head.

Seconds later, a woman in the audience screamed: "Her hair's on fire."

John Raitt, leading man, was on stage with his back to Miss Sarnoff. He whirled, rushed across the stage and pressed out the fire with his hands.

"I could smell smoke," Miss Sarnoff asid later. "But I was sure John would do something. All I could think of was that I had to keep singing."

She estimated she lost about an inch and a half of hair from the top of her head.
